

Wall Paper Ideals

will be realized here. Our Wall Papers are beyond the average in artistic merit. Not only are they quite out of the ordinary, but they produce effects which one might consider impossible to get. We're showing a lot of truly decorative features that you cannot afford to ignore when papering. The housewife's responsibility in selecting appropriate papers is lessened by consulting us. We specialize in this work.

B. W. Hooker & Company
 UNDERTAKERS LICENSED EMBALMERS FUNERAL DIRECTORS
 HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE PHONE 87-11
 DAY OR NIGHT

TALK OF THE TOWN

Musing underwear at Abbott's. John Ottolini of Blackwell street was a week-end guest of friends in Bethel. Andie stores and ranges are the best. Call at E. A. Prindle Co., Depot square. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ryan of Denver, Col., are visiting at D. B. Ryan's in Graniteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Batchelder of Plainfield were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Moses J. Boulice left Saturday for Springfield, where he will be employed in a machine shop.

Dr. and Mrs. William McFarland of Washington street are absent on a motor trip to Cambridge and Argyle, N. Y.

Among the Barre visitors in Burlington through the week-end were Joseph J. Kennedy, Michael Crapo and Edward Leclair.

H. C. Sargent of East Barre was a visitor in the city last night while on his way to Boston for a business visit of several days.

Miss Gertrude McFattie returned Saturday evening to her home in Nashua, N. H., after passing a week with friends on Seminary street.

William Comelli, a former resident of Barre, returned to his home in Hardwick this morning, after passing a few days with acquaintances here.

George Griffin, who is employed in Springfield, Mass., arrived in the city Saturday for a visit of several days with his father, Walter Griffin of Merchant street.

George Columb of Brooklyn street resumed his duties as brakeman on the Barre & Chelsea railroad this morning, after passing a few days with friends in Burlington.

The Charm of Those New Fall Suits

Some fetching new modes are coming in, hand in hand with autumn, this year; suitable changes in the silhouette; a new sweep and grace of line; stunning broad collar, worn open or snug up under the chin; the smartest uses that buttons, pockets and furs were ever put to—and such clever effects from those new half belts. Every day now is bringing new models into the department. You must see these new creations, in Gabardine, Chiffon Broadcloth, Wool Velour, Serges—such a wealth of rich materials and wanted colors and shades. And do remember, these are Suits we guarantee in every way, and every woman who likes well-made clothes and neat finish knows what "DAYLIGHT" label on a garment means.

This is your invitation to come and spend some happy moments inspecting these new SUITS and COATS.

Copyright 1916 The B. Black Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Favorable reports continue to reach Barre concerning the condition of Nicholas G. Mascott, who submitted to an operation in a Burlington hospital 10 days ago. It is expected that Mr. Mascott will be able to return home within a short time.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Brick Cat hose at Abbott's. Friends of Mrs. S. D. Allen of Franklin street will be glad to learn of her steady improvement in health since returning to her home, after submitting to an operation in the Barre City hospital a few days ago.

The New Coats

This cut represents a few of our new Coat models. Never was there a season when there were so many individual Coat models, beautiful Coats with smart new features of the season. Fancy how snug it will be on cold days with one of these charming Suits to protect you. A great variety of models in all the favored materials.

Ladies' Waists and Skirts

We have now one of the largest lines of Separate Skirts we have ever been able to show. These are Skirts bought at the old price, and we are giving you the benefit of the buy. We can give you just as good a Skirt at $5.00, as we ever had, and our big line at $5.50 and $5.75 are as good values as we were ever able to put out.

In the better Grades at from $6.50 to $12.00 are some unusual Skirt models. The qualities are the best, and the variety of materials will appeal to all. As the season advances we will have to get more for many reorders.

We have just received a large shipment of the new Skirt Waist models that are very popular.

The Fern Waist is a Waist that appeals to the trade, as we get new models every week and each model is up to the moment as to style and quality. The price is $1.00 each. See these Waist values.

Fall Outing Flannels

Buy now—don't wait. These prices are old prices that we cannot promise later. See the following some time this week. They will please you.

One lot of Dark and Light-Colored Outing in good weight. These in our Basement at 8c per yard.

A large assortment of both Dark and Light Outings. These are our popular grades, priced at a popular price of 10c per yard.

Yard-wide Outings cut to better advantage than narrow widths. We have a limited quantity that won't last very long. No more this season when these are sold. The price is only 15c per yard for the yard wide.

Special bargains in White Bleached Outings that we carried over last season.

One lot of Bleached Outing, nearly yard wide, in our Bargain Basement at 10c per yard. Compare it with most lace Outings.

A special Yard-Wide Bleached Outing at 15c per yard—a great value.

These are worth looking at right away.

Musing Underwear at Old Prices

This means that you can buy Musing Underwear at old prices and get the very same quality as last season. Some numbers have been improved.

The Musing people are one of the few who have not advanced prices on fall goods. They are the largest manufacturers in America of Knit Underwear.

Ask to see Children's Musing Wear in Cotton at 50c; in Wool at from 50c to 75c. See Union Suits from 50c to $1.00—$1.00 buys a Wool Suit.

Ladies Pants and Vests, Cotton at 50c. Wool at $1.00. Union Suits at $1.00 in Cotton for winter, at $2.25 in Wool for winter.

Musing Underwear is made different. It fits better, it looks better, and wears better.

It will seem good to buy to buy this Underwear at old prices when lots of other kinds are so much more.

One Suit is enough to make you a Musing Underwear customer.

From childhood we have heard folks say that the best is always the cheapest. This is one of the truest things said since language was invented. If you want to cut down your footwear bill and make sure that your feet will feel better and look better, visit this shop and pay a consistent price for your footwear.

The Hurley Shoe

for men is a marvelous example of the shoemaker's art. It will please your feet and delight your eye.

Price—$5.50, $6.00

"A Fit for Every Foot."

TILDEN SHOE COMPANY
 Aldrich Building Barre, Vermont

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Dealers say that the disposition to discuss the price of the car is so rare as to be unusual.

Apparently the first, and the almost universal, thought is of the goodness of the car.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage is unusually high.

The price of the Touring Car or Roadster complete is $755 (f. o. b. Detroit)

W. A. Wright Garage, Inc., Distributor
 Russell B. Allen, Local Agent

Barre Garage, 388 North Main Street; Telephone 234-W
 Montpelier Garage, 65 1/2 State Street; Telephone 660

TALK OF THE TOWN

Auction sale to-morrow for Mrs. Field on the Sargent farm near West Topsham: one cow, one sheep, poultry, household furniture, antiques, etc. C. F. Smith, auctioneer—adv.

Miss C. E. Reynolds, who has been making an extended stay with friends on Merchant street and elsewhere in Barre and vicinity, left this morning for her home in Saratoga, N. Y.

Brick masons began the work of re-vamping the interior walls of the city hall boilers Saturday, the work being continued yesterday and today. Tenants at the city building will not get their share of artificial heat until the re-vamped walls are thoroughly dry. Under favorable conditions from three to four weeks are usually consumed in drying the walls.

A fine range, costing $33, used less than a year, to be sold at half price at private sale at City Auction Market.

Charles Melanson, who has been playing ball with the Italian A. C. since the close of St. Anselmi's college in Waverly, Mass., where he will visit his parents for a few days before returning to St. Anselmi's, where he will resume his studies next week.

Raymond Arkley, who has been passing a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Arkley of Washington street, returned last night to Springfield, Mass., where he is employed in the office of the Stevens-Duryea company. He was accompanied by William G. Edwards of Merchant street, who expects to be employed in Springfield, after having been engaged for some time as a clerk in the Red Cross Pharmacy, where he completed work Saturday.

Capt. Ward of the Salvation Army will be pleased to collect any clothing or furniture which Barre people may have to donate to his work. Being around among the poor, the captain is able to see that the need is great and that many poor people will appreciate warm clothing this winter. Capt. Ward has labored among this class of people in various large cities and knows it is not always a drink that brings people to poverty. In many cases it is sickness and misfortune. R. Ward, captain. Phone 264-3.

Barre's two prep school football eleven will receive their first real grilling this week in anticipation of games to be played Wednesday. In the Spaulding high school squad Coach Charles L. Brown is to put his charges through a stiff practice hour every afternoon and when the whistle blows for Wednesday's games with Montpelier seminary at the Lincoln school campus, Spaulding's gridiron warriors will be able to give a good account of themselves. Goddard seminary's first scheduled game is with the Middlebury college second team at Middlebury Saturday. Coach Hoernle has a wealth of material to pick from and by the end of the week followers of the eleven will have a pretty good notion of who is who among Goddard football players this year. The Goddard schedule will be issued within a few days.

C. F. Smith, auctioneer, and W. M. Parker, real estate agent, of Montpelier hold an auction sale in that city Saturday afternoon of four residence properties for John W. Ryan. These houses were located on Berlin street and Ryan place. House No. 1 was sold to F. Bouchard for $1,200; house No. 2 was sold to P. Chennette for $1,025; house No. 3 was sold to M. J. Doyle for $1,301; and a small house that had been moved back from the street was sold to Mr. Doyle for $615. Every one of them was an actual sale, and a cash payment for each one was made on the spot. Mr. Ryan was much pleased with the outcome, as he wanted to be relieved of the care of these properties, and the purchasers certainly secured some bargains.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's new suit models. Among the Chelsea visitors in the city Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrow, Harold Speare, Charles and T. Doyle.

Mrs. G. H. Stuart, who has been making an extended visit with friends in Redgranite, Wis., returned to her home Saturday.

John S. Crane and Andrew G. Crane of Manchester were among the business visitors in the city Saturday, returning to their home this morning.

R. R. Levin, who has been visiting friends on South Main street over the week end, left this noon for Burlington, where he will spend several days with his sister, Mrs. K. S. Kantz, before returning to his home in White Plains, N. Y.

Harold W. Fitts, who has been spending the summer vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fitts, of Park street, left last night for Burlington, where he will resume his studies at the University of Vermont this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fogg and daughter, Velma, of Littleton, N. H., visited over the week end with Mrs. Francis Vigneault, who is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carson, of Laurel street. They left yesterday for Hanover, N. H., where they will visit at the home of Mr. Fogg's brother, Alexander Fogg, for a few days.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Elizabeth Turner, who has been visiting friends on Brook street since the first of the month, left this morning for her home in Rutland.

Mrs. C. R. Jeru of Jefferson street left Saturday for Springfield, where she will join her husband, who has been employed there as a stonecutter during the past three weeks.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leonard visited friends on North Main street Saturday while en route from East Albany, where they have been encamped during the past week, to their homes in Manchester, N. H.

D. M. Miles of West street, together with Misses Kathleen and Clare Miles and Miss Dorothy Donohue, left this morning for Burlington, where they will visit friends to-day. Miss Clare Miles will leave Burlington to-night for LaRochelle college at LaRochelle, N. Y., where she enters this week.

Charles Hoernle of the seminary faculty is in receipt of letters from George Burns, first baseman of the Burlington team in the Vermont state league this season, and Frank Heatherton of Framingham, Mass., signifying their intentions of entering Goddard this fall. Probably they will arrive in Barre some time during the early part of this week. Both men have had some experience in football and with the present material they may be of great help to Coaches Kinney and Hoernle in rounding out a fast team.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Granite Cutters' International Association of America.

A regular meeting of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A. of A. will be held in opera house.

Una riunione regolare dell' unione degli scalpellini (branch di Barre) avra' luogo nella opera house.

On Monday evening, Sept. 25, at 7 o'clock.

J. D. Will, Secretary.

Notice!

An adjourned meeting of Barre branch, G. C. I. A., will be held in the granite cutters' rooms, Scampini block, on Wednesday, Sept. 27, 1916, for the purpose of voting for two delegates to attend the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

The ballot will be open from 4 to 8 p. m.

Members will bring their cards and get them stamped.

J. D. Will, Secretary.

Avviso!

Un meeting adgiornato della branch di Barre, G. C. I. A., verra' tenuto Mercoledì 27 Settembre 1916, nell' ufficio degli scalpellini nel Scampini block per l'elezione dei due delegati al congresso dell' American Federation of Labor.

Stante l'importanza di tali due delegati le urne per votare saranno aperte dalle ore 4 alle 8 pom.

N. B. Membri dovranno portare con se la carta per essere timbrata.

J. D. Will, Segretario.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's sale on winter outings. G. L. Walker returned to his home in New York City last night, after spending the past two days in Barre and Willamstown.

Carroll C. Smith, who has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith of Summer street, since his return from the West about a month ago, left last night for Boston, where he will resume his studies at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new expansion dress at Abbott's. A large crowd attended the auction sale at Farnham's in Montpelier last Friday. Between 30 and 40 commission horses went through the ring and sold from $225 down. Several horses were sold and exchanged at private sale during the day, a much better sale than was expected at this time of the year. Several cows were also disposed of at satisfactory prices. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new expansion dress at Abbott's. A large crowd attended the auction sale at Farnham's in Montpelier last Friday. Between 30 and 40 commission horses went through the ring and sold from $225 down. Several horses were sold and exchanged at private sale during the day, a much better sale than was expected at this time of the year. Several cows were also disposed of at satisfactory prices. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new expansion dress at Abbott's. A large crowd attended the auction sale at Farnham's in Montpelier last Friday. Between 30 and 40 commission horses went through the ring and sold from $225 down. Several horses were sold and exchanged at private sale during the day, a much better sale than was expected at this time of the year. Several cows were also disposed of at satisfactory prices. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

WE SHOULD ALL RESPONSIBILITY! OUR MEATS ARE JUST AS GOOD AS THEY CAN BE!

It's MEATS
 We'll meet you half way

Western Beef
 Native Pig Pork

Native Veal
 Chickens and Fowls
 Boiled Ham

Beef and Pork Sausage
 Frankforts
 Honeycomb Tripe
 Hams
 Bacon
 Smoked Shoulders

Red Cranberries, per quart ..... 10c
 Sweet Potatoes, per peck ..... 30c
 Concord Grapes, per basket ..... 17c
 4 packages of Corn Flakes for ..... 25c

Extra fine lot of Finnan Haddie for Saturday.
 Shell Clams, Lobsters, Oysters, Crabs, Lake Fish, etc.
 Extra large jars Olives, full quarts ..... 25c

The Smith & Cumings Co.

Something Better in
Hot Water Bottles

Hang a 50-lb. weight on one of our Hot Water Bottles and watch the bottle stretch without break or crack. It's the quality of the live, stretchy rubber that does it. Try to pull the seams apart—you cannot do it, because they are seamless bags. The very best Hot Water Bottles on the market. Guaranteed for upwards of three years' steady use.

Drown's Drug Store
 48 North Main Street
 Drugs and Kodaks

Monday Special

Six 5c boxes of Matches, 30c worth, for 19c
 These are the Ohio Matches, full count, 500 to the box. This is less than the wholesale price on Matches today.

Our advices are that the Peach season will be shorter than usual this year. We have a nice lot of Elberta Freestone Peaches, per basket, net $1.00.

3 pkgs. Fitz-em-all Rubbers for ..... 25c
 Lighting style Jars, per dozen,
 1 1/2-pts. 60c; pts., 70c; qts., 80c; 1/2-gals., $1.00

Fancy Red Star Sweet Potatoes, per peck ..... 30c
 Crab Apples, per peck ..... 20c
 Fresh lot of Cream, Pimento and Olive Cheese in tinfoil, per package ..... 10c

The F. D. Ladd Company